

Pocklington Town Council

Equal Opportunities Policy

BACKGROUND

The Equality Act 2010 replaced all existing equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, The Disability Discrimination act and Sex Discrimination Act. It has consolidated this legislation, simplified it and extended protection from discrimination. It is unlawful for public bodies to discriminate against a person by treating them less favourably because of their:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender
- Gender Reassignment
- Race
- Religion, faith or belief including lack of belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and Maternity

The Public Sector Equality Duty as part of the Equality Act came into force on 6 April 2011. It requires all public bodies when carrying out their day to day work to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
- Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
