

Have your say on the future of Pocklington's Burnby Hall

- What would you like to see Burnby Hall used for in the future?
- What does Pocklington and district need?
- Come to a drop-in at Burnby Hall on Wednesday 5 June, 2.30 pm – 7.30 pm to share your views and hear how the hall's options appraisal is progressing.
- A study team is conducting an options appraisal to identify a viable way forward for the hall. There's a wide range of potential uses for the property, one being a new heritage centre to display recent archaeological finds.
- There are many other potential options and this is an opportunity for the public to have a say and shape which are taken forward by the study team.
- Residents from Pocklington and surrounding villages, including families, businesses, visitors and anyone interested in the hall's future are invited.
- Come to the Community Hall at Burnby Hall on Wed 5 June, 2.30pm - 7.30pm meet the team, hear how it's progressing and share your views.
- This is an informal drop-in event open to all. Please feel free to drop by for as little or as long as you like.
